NEW WAR

=Welcome into this New War=

You have the right to decide

You have the time to decide

You have the right to take part

You paid so much for that

You do know

-Anyone in Anyway has the Choice to choose-

If you don-t if you don-t if you don-t then you loose!

It-s so easy to say when what you say is heard

But millions of voices can-t be heard as one (x)

They won the game when they gave you just enough to be scared by...loosing it all...

I am a poor old black jew gay with aids

I guess there-s nothing to complain about

I-m a part of the great game and I-m vain

I-m a part of the great game and I-m vain

There is just one thing ICANSAY

In this new war we fight with bills

Just get ready to feel the great thrill

There is no revolution without blood and

Are you ready to give your blood ?

Once you-ll know why you are here

You will forget tour fears

Just think that you-ll win Oh the result is so nice!!!

Don-t be too clever

Follow your fate

Follow your hate

Become the danger

Like a rich white trader on DHEA

Now you are pure enough to save your treasure...

It-s so easy to say when what you say is heard

But millions of voices can-t be heard as one (x)
