

Move on - 1/1

Interprété par Kmfdm.

Reflect in the mirror, revenge is redundant
Resurrect your idols, return to the basics
Realign your thoughts, relocate to zero
Reverse into backward, repossess your soul

Now is the time, reassess your values
Going back to the basics, to powerful means
At the end of the day, it's an incredible scene
We are ready to rock, get ??? or die

My inner circle's helter skelter, echoes loving ecstasy
I know I'll find a way to live, a way for you and me

Stuck in the past, with a ??? to suck in sadness
Don't pretend understanding, understanding the ???

Generational madness is crawling again

Right on the edge of a nightmarish war
Roaming the land like never before

Center yourself now, the trouble of helping
The details of ???, like in the past
Introducing the power of surviving the contest
Believe in your own strength, and now is the time

Doesn't really matter what you believe
Doesn't really matter if you belong
