

Slice - 1/1

Interprété par Schaft.

Once twice sometimes thrice I came for you with a stanley knife
Nicely nicely come on excite me I wanna feel your metal slice me
Feel defile oh so dumb I see you hurt now here I come
I'm silent I'm violent lie still while I have my will I'm soon hot soon cold

A mismatch of velvet how I feel it
My skin is aflame my mind is lame
You twist this knot and feed my pain
Slice slice here comes the knife
Slice slice here comes the knife
Feed the fire on my funeral pyre you're the pearl I'm the pain

You're the lesion I'm the lesion I hear a great big noise inside my head
A squinting eye a squeezing finger bite the hurts with a chink of lead
There's a fear filled blood red sea in my mind a punt of lies is my legacy
Gimme the space and I'll show you the pace
You're the fish I'm the foul meat in the middle
Turn up the fire put the flesh on the griddle
You're the place that holds me in its spell
That holds me like the native place
To you I talk, walk and stalk

The seaboard secret strikes the line
The land I burn is all that's mine
Burn your lover
Burn your shrine
Fill my cup and bide my time
I'm the silent cyclone the silent medicine
This killin' is fillin' my cup to brimmin'
You obey while I betray
I taste and die heave and cry
Yearn for one more reddened eye
The tree the flower and the seed
Will supporate and dry and bleed

Your secret skin will spell my name
Your secret skin will shelter me
Your secret skin will smell of me
Your secret skin will hide this
Shame
