

Angels don't kill - 1/1

Interprété par Children Of Bodom.

"I want no one to escape"

I hear the first sets going by Watching myself slowly die Sharp is the pain leadin' through my heart Slowly tearing me apart

What if you're an angel fallen from grace? Yes, the fist that I hate Pick me up from the gutter with a gentle kiss The rips from my heart is showing me, how black it is!

Go!
Yeah I'll go!
It feels so cold
Yeah, I'm watching by
I'll die alone!

I hear the first sets walking by Watching myself slowly die Sharpening pain leadin' through my heart Slowly tearing me apart

When you appear, as an angel looking me down, looking my way Could you ever kill the pain in my heart? Even though they say angels don't kill

Go!
Yeah I'll go!
It feels so cold
Yeah, I'm watching by
I'll die alone
Go!
Yeah I'll go
It feels so cold
Yeah, I'm watching by
I'll die alone!!
