

Attack - 1/2

Interprété par System Of A Down.

Breathing each other's lives
Holding this in mind
That if we fall, we all fall
And we fall alone
The cold insincerity of steel machines
Have consumed our euphoria
Transforming us into muted dreams
Dreaming of the day that
We attack
Attack, attack your fetal servitude
We attack
Attack, attack, attack with pesticide
We attack
All the years of propaganda
We shall attack
Books illustrate what we already know
Candles cry towards to the sky
Racing your flags along polluted coasts
Dreaming of the day that
We attack
Attack, attack our fetal servitude
We attack
Attack, attack, attack with pesticide
We attack
All the years of propaganda
We shall attack
Attack
Attack
Breathing each other's lives
Holding this in mind
That if we fall, we all fall
And we fall alone
Breathing each other's lives
Holding this in mind
That if we fall, we all fall
And we fall alone
What's the philosophy of displaced mines
The bomb of all homes and villages
Truth is the only sword bleeding minds
Bleeding till the day that
We attack
Attack, attack our fetal servitude
We attack
Attack, attack, attack with pesticide
We attack
All the years of propaganda

Attack - 2/2

Attack all the homes and villages
Attack all the schools and the hospitals
You attack all the rapes and pillages
We shall attack
We shall attack
