

Daydream #2 - 1/1

Interprété par Rhesus.

a glassy moon, full of freezing stars standing up above in your playing yard your round your arms around me pretending heating me are you really aware of your feelings and i just wanna say
i love you so i'm daydreaming under the milkyway we're interwine like perfect lovers do i touch your hands, cherish your tiny face can feel your breath heating my disguise
and i just wanna say
i love you so
