

Believe in me - 1/1

Interprété par Inept.

We are, head over heels wit this new life that sits in our hearts, and i'm giving you everything and trying my hardest to be what you need in a time that has come unexpectedly.

Believe me i will be there

breathe cause the sound of your voice is unclear

Breathe. im trying so hard to believe, taking in everything from the worst to the best of the greatest times to come.

Believe me i will be there.

i know this will be so hard we'll stomp our feet to the heart thats beating blow a kiss to life we're breading we know we owe it to ourselves
