

Beyond the tears - 1/1

Interprété par Inept.

I wake to fear to see the thought of you lie there far away, so far away from here on this day I dress for you kneel pray silence surrounds me patience fades away

Go Away to see the part in me behind the love, beyond the tears well see it a better you.

So cold your lying in your death-bed with a smile far away so far away from here
As I try to keep my cool here mourning comes spit and choose.
I choose not to tear

Go away into heaven into heaven the home for you we well pray with undying love
