

Forsaken - 1/1

Interprété par Within Temptation.

Now the day has come We are forsaken this time

We lived our lives in our paradise As gods we shaped the world around No borderlines we'd stay behind Though balance is something fragile

While we thought we were gaining We would turn back to the tide, it still slips away Our time has run out, our future has died There's no more escape

Now the day has come We are forsaken There's no time anymore Life will pass us by We are forsaken We're the last of our kind

The sacrifice was much too high Our greed just made us all go blind We tried to hide what we feared inside Today is the end of tomorrow

As the sea started rising
The land that we'd conquered just washed away
Although we all have tried to turn back the tide
It was all in vain

Now the day has come We are forsaken There's no time anymore Life will pass us by We are forsaken Only ruins stay behind

Now the day has come We are forsaken this time

Now the day has come We are forsaken There's no time anymore

Now the day has come The day has come The day has come
