

Tomorrow you didn't - 1/1

Interprété par Avril Lavigne.

It's a forgone conclusion, you're love's an illusion
And the picture is starting to fade
Boy let's be honest, when it comes to your promise
It's just a lot of empty words that you say
And the future's only gonna be more of the same
You've only got yourself to blame

Tomorrow you didn't, yesterday you won't
Cause I know everything you say you gonna do you don't
That's a given, it doesn't matter anyway
Hey, I know what love wasn't, I know what love isn't
So when you say you're gonna change you gotta be kidding
Tomorrow you didn't,
Hey hey, I'm outta here today
I used to believe in all your romantic dreaming
But it really ain't that cute anymore
Cause my time's too precious
So I wish you the best with Whatever it is you're looking for Baby this is all for your own good
I'm leaving 'cause I know you never would

I don't need a crystal ball to see it all my dear
It doesn't matter what you say
It always turns out the same way
Your predictions are fiction
And it's tragically clear
