

Selfish girl - 1/1

Interprété par Rihanna.

Baby boy what you done to me
I saw you smiling suddenly
I can't get you out my mind
I got it bad boy I can't lie
I want your time and your full attention
I wanna to talk to you and not to mention good love
That you give to me I think about it constantly
No I won't apologize for feeling like I do it's just
The simple facts of life I'm crazy over you

I'm a selfish girl when it comes to you every minute of the day
I'm addicted to what your giving me boy
It's killing me when it comes to love I'm not trying share
You might think I'm greedy but I just don't care
I need you in my world cause I'm a selfish girl

I understand that you got your crew
But I've got something in mind for you make Yyou lose all track of time guaranteed to blow your mind
I don't care what anybody got to say
Maybe they never had it quite this way let them talk
And criticize they all need to recognize
They might see I'm a bit extreme to need you night
And day but what I feel can't be concealed there ain't no other way

I'm a selfish girl when it comes to you every minute of the day
I'm addicted to what your giving me boy
it's killing me when it comes to love I'm not trying share
You might think I'm greedy but I just don't care
I need you in my world cause I'm a selfish girl

Boy you got me tripping
I didn't know what I was missing
This is crazy (crazy)
So amazing (so amazing)
I didn't mean to be demanding but I hope your understanding
I'm not playing boy (I'm not playing boy)
I'm just saying boy
They might see I'm a bit extreme to need you night
And day but what I feel can't be concealed there ain't no other way
