

Wasting my time - 1/1

Interprété par Take That.

You've maybe seen me walk behind you
I follow you just everywhere you go
I've heard a whisper, they're telling me you've missed her
I know you're loving someone else
Instead of loving me, so I've been

Wasting my time, running after you girl
Wasting my time, still I feel a sense of love
Never be mine, you're someone else's lady
Always on my mind, that I could steal your love away

Even now I know it doesn't change me
Maybe someday you'll be free again
Till then remember, babe I won't surrender
Still hurts me when I know you're loving someone else
Instead of loving me, so I've been

Wasting my time, running after you girl
Wasting my time, still I feel a sense of love
Never be mine, you're someone else's lady
Always on my mind, that I could steal your love away

You said you've been missing me
But how can that be girl, how can that be girl
Now all our plans that used to be passing us by
You say I wanna be free
