

I can't help myself - 1/2

Interprété par Miguel Angel Munoz.

Everything I say is just right
Everything I do is air tight
But then I lay my eyes upon her
And my brain says to me
"What's up"
And that's really mean
I can't help myself
Everytime I see her I just
Can't see nothing else
And I feel so dum, from staring
Just can't help myself
Somebody come to my aid
I'm loosing my cool
But I can't help myself
And my boys go gotta cool it
As if I didn't know
And my boys go: easy does it
Gotta wait three days to call her
Like I could wait one
Better yet: make her call ya
But the damage is done
I can't help myself
Everytime I see her I just
Can't see nothing else
And I feel so dum, from staring
Just can't help myself
Somebody come to my aid
I'm loosing my cool
But I can't help myself
What am I gonna do, gonna do now
What am I gonna do, gonna do now
What am I gonna do, this is bye-bye to everything I knew
What am I gonna do, right now and what's my next move
What am I gonna do, I studder, eeh... studder every word I say
What am I gonna do, when a simple little line ain't coming my way
I can't help myself
Everytime I see her I just
Can't see nothing else
And I feel so dum, from staring
Just can't help myself
Somebody come to my aid
I'm loosing my cool
But I can't help myself
I can't help myself
Everytime I see her I just
Can't see nothing else
And I feel so dum, from staring
