

Love is love - 1/1

Love is love
Love is love

Something just crept upon me
As you lay next to me this morning
As you looked up into my eyes
Suddenly I realised
What I've been searchin' for
I no longer have to look no more
A chance to find my soulmate of...
Has released the woman I am.

Its a feeling no-one can describe (No-one can describe)
But I know the feeling's here tonight (Is here tonight)
Cos it has unleashed me to my very soul (To my very soul)
All my demons, all my fears, I'm letting go (I'm letting go)

Love is a living a lie (Not sure about this line)
Its a gift, not an obligation
Cannot lead you to temptation
Love is love, not a game,
And it should always remain so

Love is a living a lie (Not sure about this line)
Its a gift, not an obligation
Cannot lead you to temptation
Love is love, not a game,
And it should always remain so
