Verse 1:

Like an angel out of the sky you came
Clearing up all the clouds
Of sadness and the rain
So pure you and healing was the love you bring
I knew inside
It felt so right...

Bridge:

For me, I've struggled, all my life
To find that thing that makes it right
With you it seems I may have found
Some other kind of love

Chorus:

I will, love you all my life
Always be by your side
And I will give you all I have
Cause you gave me peace and joy
Again, again, again...

I was scared to let go and trust your love
After what I'd been through I have had enough
Whispering through your eyes you never said a word
But something said
You're heart's safe

For me, I've struggled, all my life
To find that thing that makes it right
With you it seems I may have found
Some other kind of love

I will love you all my life
Always be by your side
And I will give you all I have
Cause you gave me peace and joy
Again, again, again...

A friend is what you always have in me
I'm so grateful for the man you turned out to be
And it doesn't who you happen to meet
You're forever me
A secret part of me

I will love you all my life
Always be by your side

Again - 2/2

And I will give you all I have
Cause you gave me peace and joy
Again, again, again...
