

Losing You - 1/1

Interprété par Busted.

I'm sitting here alone thinking it through,
Trying to convince myself that I'm not losing you.
Oh can't you just forget the things I said,
I was angry at the time but now I've cleared my head.

It was so strong, where did it all go wrong.

So tell me why,
I'm swimming against the tide,
Praying for a life line cos I'm losing you.
So tell me why,
You don't care enough to try,
Are you giving up this fight,
I can't stand, won't stand losing you.

You don't have to say, a word it's in your eyes,
It cannot do to comfort you, we need more time.
And I know I may have made a few mistakes,
But losing you is just too much for me to take.

It was so strong, where did it all go wrong.

So tell me why,
I'm swimming against the tide,
Praying for a life line cos I'm losing you.
So tell me why,
You don't care enough to try,
Are you giving up this fight,
I can't stand, won't stand losing you.

So tell me what to say,
because I need a chance to change,
And I won't let you walk away.

So tell me why,
I'm swimming against the tide,
Praying for a life line cos I'm losing you.
So tell me why,
You don't care enough to try,
Are you giving up this fight,
I can't stand, won't stand losing you.

Won't stand losing you,
Won't stand losing you.
Won't stand losing you.
