

Hooch - 1/1

Interprété par Sum 41.

It's your last chance to find yourself in consequence.
It's so hard to find a simple reason.
Maybe I'll find myself with evidence.
Hate breeds with nothing to believe in.
Another day another day in paradise.
If you only knew wouldn't it be nice.
Get away get away.
I'm about to detonate.
Everything to lose
nothing to prove
just when everything has fallen to the ground
gonna know it down
just believe me when I tell you it's alright.
This time we're on our way to tragedy
forever bored and outside from the crowd.
I've come to grips confronting my reality.
Numbstruck it's me against the world now.
For all you know for all you know it's not for real spare me the obsession that you deal.
Get away get away.
I'm about to detonate.
Everything to lose
nothing to prove
just when everything has fallen to the ground
gonna know it down
just believe me when I tell you it's alright.
I should've known right from the start
that you'd take this trust and rip me apart.
Could be a change of heart.
I'll fall into you, but don't believe this is real.
