

Out of whack - 1/1

Interprété par Flaw.

maybe nobody told you about this life maybe nobody answered your questions why simple revelations they come in time those liars told us things would all be fine born out of whack give him something possible you thought it would've mattered not likely to change things we've come too far where innocent young kids are put behind bars but it's an easy decision banished so far you're not as civil as you think you are [chorus]
you say we're all born out of whack well don't act so surprised how there's been a lot going on since you realized that we're all just kids trying to get along so answer one thing
are you gonna stay inside. are you gonna stay inside of our minds?
are we all born wrong?
[chorus]
