BREAK

I walk alone
I am alone
I think alone
I'll die alone
Don't think I can make it on my own
I think I need someone to save me!
Such is life So sad but true
Kill everything That's close to you
Try to decide what not to do
You know you cannot control me
I think theres no point in Going any further
Than ive gone already
Can't keep my hands steady
Sadness
Everyday for me
You can't Take that away from me
All these fucking thoughts inside my head
Are almost more than I can take
You push an doushl on me
Your gonna keep on pushing Till I break
You think you can control me
Have no chains that hold me
Only thing that saves me
Voices just might kill me
Sadness
Every day for me
You can't take that away from me
All these fucking thoughts inside my head
Are almost more than I can take
You push and push on me
Youre gonna keep on pushing till I break
Sadness
Every day for me
You can't take that away from me
All these fucking thoughts inside my head
Are almost more than I can take
You push and push on me
Youre gonna keep on pushing till I break
