TOLERATE

Its been like this forever. No more. I hate my fucking life

I don't give a fuck about all of your problems
I could give a rats ass how you're feeling today
Take your worldly advice and shove it straight up your ass
Thanks for coming around to fuck up my day
I try tolerate
Good bye
Take me
Look at you I cant
You don't see the whole picture
Take my bed of dirt cold and empty I'll stay
Whats the point of trying to stay above the surface
Take my life from me help me to ease my pain
