

The Game - 1/2

Interprété par Disturbed.

Tell me exactly what am I supposed to do now that I have allowed you to beat me Do you think that we could play another game maybe I could win this time I kind of like the misery you put me through darlin' you can't trust me completely if you even try to look the other way I think that I could kill this time

rah rah
rah rah

It doesn't really seem I'm getting through to you even though I see you weeping so sweetly I think that you should take another taste
A little bit of hell this time.

chorus:
rah rah
you lied to me
rah rah
you lied to me
is she not right is she insane will she not run for the life of the other one's ecstasy (???) ow! she not right ow! she insane wow! she now run for the life yeow yeow yeow you always wanted people to remember you to leave your little mark on society don't you know your wish is coming true today another victim dies tonight

dum diddy dum dum di dida dum diddy dum diddy do (x7) wishing you were here telling lies again doesn't she realize she's in danger

yeeeeeeow!!

little bitch she's playing and she told a lie
