

Just Hold On - 1/1

Interprété par Boyz II Men.

I know you've been going through some things,
The pain you hold inside is written on your face.
I know you're 'bout tired of the rain,
Well, baby so am I,
But I know things can change.
Well, you can die, you can sigh, you can cry,
'Til your midnight blue, but that's not you, no, no.
'Cause I know you're stronger,
And it's apparent to me, so do you.

CHORUS:

If you just hold on,
I swear that everything will be okay.
I know that you're nervous,
But baby give it some time,
And things will go your way.

I know He's been heavy on your mind,
Baby give him up, He's not worth your time.
Where is it that says you need a guy,
For you don't need his love to justify your life.
So He can go, let Him go, make Him go,
You should want him to,
'Cause so can you.
I know that you're stronger,
And it's getting clearer to me, so do you.

REPEAT CHORUS

So don't let your defences down,
I know somehow you'll work things out.
Don't make it hard on no-one else,
You should just believe in yourself, yourself.
If you just....
