Interprété par Scorpions.

I thought I knew you baby
But it seems I don't know, I don't know you at all
One thing's for sure you're so bad
And then again, when you kiss me baby
You know it's got the taste
The taste of a eternal life
I want you to feel the taste of life

This moment in time
I hear the call of a siren
This lady is quite
Mysterious

I want your mind to lock in
I want your mind to lock in
I want your mind to lock

If my life were a glass of water
Filled by the rain from a velvet sky
I want you to drink
Because your lips are dry

This moment in time
I follow her blind
This lady is quite
Mysterious

I want your mind to lock in
I want your mind to lock in
I want your mind to lock
Mysterious

I want your mind to lock in
I want your mind to lock in
I want your mind to lock

This time I thought I got you baby
But you slipped away
And I thought I'd die

This moment in time
I'm losing my mind
But she remains quite
Mysterious
I'm crossing the line
I will follow her blind

Mysterious - 2/2

Mysterious

I want your mind to lock in

I want your mind to lock in

I want your mind to lock

Mysterious

I want your mind to lock in

I want your mind to lock in

I want your mind to lock

I want your mind to lock in

I want your mind to lock

And I thought I'd die

I want your mind to lock in

I'm losing my mind

I hear the call of a siren

This lady is quite

Mysterious

You're so bad

You're so bad

Mysterious

I want your mind to lock in

I want your mind to lock in

I want your mind to lock

I thought I knew you baby

I thought I knew you baby

I thought I knew you baby

But I don't know you at all

It's got the taste you know it's got the taste

You know it's got the taste

I want your mind to lock in

I want your mind to lock in

Of an eternal life
