Julia Says - Wet Wet Wet

Here we go again, thru the backstreets of my mind,
It seems my life was standing still,
Who's sorry now, it's funny how I didn't know it
Here we go again, fighting things we never win,
It seems our love was standing still I'm sorry now,
It's funny how I don't feel the love,
I just hear the words, Julia says
She doesn't know what it's all about,
She doesn't seem to care at all,
Open your eyes and see
Love hurts
I won't be fooled again, looking for the dreams I couldn't find
The dreams for me were left behind
I'm sorry now, It's funny how,
I don't feel the love,
I just hear the words, Julia says
She doesn't know what it's all about,
She doesn't seem to care at all,
Open your eyes and see, love hurts,
Julia please, open your eyes and see
Julia wants to be on here own,
Sharing her thoughts, she is all alone,
Dreaming of the things she wants to be,
Where Julia don't belong
Julia said
She doesn't know what it's all about
She doesn't know, C'Mon Julia
She doesn't know what it's all about
Julia... ..
