

Hell&bliss - 1/1

Interprété par Majandra Delfino.

To explain the madness surreal
To complain of the sadness involved with knowing you
To forget the revolting thought of going through
The regreat and the healing that I'd have to do
Through my eyes the sky is pretty and you Promise you'll join in the flight
But I can't deny the gritty thought That you can't take the high
You look at this as one big fall
Life will be both hell and bliss or it can be nothing at all
So I just ask you now to choose Don't you think it's worth it Even if you lose ?
How do I begin to speak when action measure true feelings ?
Though your words do leave me weak your movements Always leave me kneeling
The true test of time is distance but I'm not willing to see
I won't damage with non sense What actions show is meant to be
Through my eyes the sky is pretty and you Promise you'll join in the flight
But I can't deny the gritty thought That you can't take the high
You can look at this as one big fall
Life will be both hell and bliss or it can be nothing at all
So I just ask you now to choose Don't you think it's worth it
Even if you could still lose ? You can look at this as one big fall
Life will be both hell and bliss or it can be nothing at all
So I just ask you now to choose Don't you think it's worth it
Even if you could still lose ?
