Horace Andy

Yeah yeah yeah ah

You see a man's face

But you don't see his heart

You see a man's face

But you will never know his thoughts

Everywhere you go

There's a man to say love

Never neither never neither

Take it to heart

For your heart is your heart

And your thoughts is your thoughts

Never mix love with hatred

You see a man's face

You will never see his heart

You see a man's face

But you will never know his thoughts

You see a man's face

You will never know his thoughts

You see a man's face
