

Me - 1/2

Interprété par Faith Hill.

I've changed my hair, my clothes, almost Everything about myself I can't believe I tried to be somebody I'm not For someone else, yeah It took finding you to finally understand What it's like to be loved for who I am Me That's all I have to give What you get is what you see, yeah No second guessing, no pretending With you, all I ever have to be is me I can laugh or cry, don't have to hide The way I feel Rain or shine, by my side proving we've got A love that's real An old pair of jeans or an evening gown You still see the same girl that you found Me That's all I have to give What you get is what you see, yeah

No second guessing, no pretending

With you, all I ever have to be is me

Me

That's all I have to give

What you get is what you see, yeah

No second guessing, no pretending

With you, all I ever have to be is me

All I ever need to be, oh yeah

All I ever have to be is me
