

I'm born again - 1/1

Interprété par Boney M.

I'm born again, I feel free
No longer alone
A bright light is shining
And shows me a world that I own
I can see my way through
I know I will walk beside you
All those prayers of mine were in vain
I'm born again

I'm born again, I feel free
There's a quite different me
No longer I'm tossed like a ship
On an unruly sea
I've been blessed with a love
That's meant for the rest of my time
All those prayers they were not in vain
'Cause I'm born again

Since love touched my heart right
My life has a meaning
I feel I'm no longer drifting in space
I believe once again that there is a tomorrow
A brand new tomorrow, I know I can face

I'm born again...

All those prayers they were not in vain
'Cause I'm born again
