

Here comes that sinking feeling - 1/1

Interprété par Annie Lennox.

Have you ever heard the sound of disappointment?
It tangles your head like a winter rose
Comes up eager and shining
And it likes to leave a scar before it goes
Here comes that sinking feeling
(Can't keep it to myself)
Nobody hurts me like you do
You cut into me like a poison dart
Creep into my sleep at night
Break into my dreams and tear them apart
Here comes that sinking feeling
Have you ever felt the sound of disappointment?
It pounds in your head like hammer blows
Comes on gentle and smiling
And it likes to leave a scar...
Here it comes again no
Here comes that sinking feeling
