

Mindfields - 1/2

Interprété par Toto.

There's a rumor of a midnight man
So silent in disguise
And everytime he looks your way
You see it in his eyes
Like a window to the storm
He just invades your paradise
Don't you buy what he is selling
It's just lies...

When he says.....these hearts are willing Story goes.....these dreams are free

Only take a moment
But you must acclimatize
Don't you buy what he is selling
It's just lies

Over your left shoulder
I have seen the angry beast
Heard the war horn screaming,
As they gather for the feast Seen a star – crossed and with the death-car and a shield

We're walking through mindfields
...you see an angel and she takes you by her hand
We're walking through mindfields
... her lips are movin' like she's prayin'
We're walking through mindfields
She speaks so softly and you want to understand
What she's sayin'

There's a stairway leading to the sun
I walk it in my sleeps
And a ship of fools above the sky
Who've gotten into deep
With a doorway into nowhere
And the path is way too steep
Don't lose you angry soul
It's yours to keep...

Where it ends ..it's the beginning
And it stays Right to the end

The reason is unclear my friends

Mindfields - 2/2

It almost makes me weep
So don't lose you angry soul
It's yours to keep
