

Rainbow wings - 1/1

Interprété par Eagle-Eye Cherry.

Don't sell your soul for a pack of lies
Don't sell your soul
I met the devil in disguise with his rainbow wings and a pack of lies
I had my suspicions but they were ignored

Far away the angel cries
How far away the angel sings
Don't sell your soul for a pack of lies
Don't sell your soul

I watched him preach from the book of greed with promises of glory and how we'll succeed
I had my suspicions but they were ignored

Far away the angel cries
How far away the angel sings
Don't sell your soul for a pack of lies
Don't sell your soul

Far away the angel cries
How far away the angel sings
Don't sell your soul for a pack of lies
Don't sell your soul
