

Hundreds Of Tears - 1/1

Interprété par Sheryl Crow.

I stood in the warmth of night Chilled to the bone Hundreds of faces in sight Still I'm alone Door after door And room after empty room I've stood here before But under a different moon

In the longest days, in the darkest night Down the longest road, there's a presence of light But I hear a voice that calls me It's love's name I'll call in the end

I've walk in and out of the fire
Between truth and lies
Now how many children watch
While one child cries
Tear down these walls
And watch while our souls are freed
I've thrown away pride
To drown in this endless sea

In the longest days, in the darkest night Down the longest road, there's a presence of light But I hear a voice that calls me It's love's name I'll call in the end

Hundreds of tears on the water Mercy come rain down on me Hundreds of tears on the water Mercy come rain down on me

In the longest days, in the darkest night Down the longest road, there's a presence of light But I hear a voice that calls me It's love's name I'll call in the end

Hundreds of tears on the water Mercy come rain down on me Hundreds of tears on the water Mercy come rain down on me