

Rain , Tax (It's inevitable) - 1/2

Interprété par Céline Dion.

I did not know there was a plan
Somewhere a perfect man
I don't believe in the stars
You smiled at my pretense
As you broke down my defenses
Just want to be where you are
Love ain't like fashion
The look remains the same
I'll wear your heart forever
'Cause some things never change

Like rain,tax
After lighting the tunder cracks (it's inevitable)
Sooner or later it had to come true
Like rain, tax
Weeds grow up through the pavement cracks
(it's inevitable)
You see what I want
What I want is you

Through that life was logical
Love was miracle
That happened to someone else, not me
Baby I musta said a little prayer
Suddenly I looked up, you were there
And the rest is history
I don't want to be an island any more
Just resign yourself
'Cause there's one thing for sure

Like rain,tax
After lighting the tunder cracks (it's inevitable)
Sooner or later it had to come true
Like rain, tax
Weeds grow up through the pavement cracks
(it's inevitable)
You see what I want
What I want is you

It had to be you, it had to be you
Say you'll be here forever
You and me here together
When you will see what I want
What I want is you

Like rain,tax
After lighting the tunder cracks (it's inevitable)

Rain , Tax (It's inevitable) - 2/2

Sooner or later it had to come true

Like rain, tax

Weeds grow up through the pavement cracks

(it's inevitable)

You see what I want

What I want is you
