

Set adrift on memory bliss - 1/1

Interprété par Backstreet boys.

The cocktail pan, the hour glass
The days go
And all I do is thinking of you
And wonder where you are and I
Oh, I remember everything
Every smile,
Even all the reason why you say
I pushed you out of my mind

Refrain :

But you set me, Baby, you set me
Set adrift on memory bliss of you
Baby, you set me
Set adrift on memory bliss

Destiny is everything
Reality has replaced you with
The biggest empty void I've ever had
I bet you say that I don't care
I bet you say
That I don't even think of you
But God knows how wrong you are

Baby will you be there
(Baby will you be there)
Just give me time
(Just give me time)
To face my life
(To face my life)
Baby will you be there
When I open my eyes
After all the time
I've spent wishing you

Sadness that overwhelmed me...
I imagine that you're
Happy with your life right now
I guess that's just the way it goes
Our heaven's gone
So now I must replace you
With all the things
That I could never have

Refrain +
Come on now

I know this much is true (X2)
