INTRO:

Missy now see, the one thang I like about the niggas
Is that they can fess up to one of their boys
That they been sleeping with the same chick, and laugh about it
But see a woman,
Could never admit to another woman that she been sleeping with her man
Cause if that ever happen to me, I'ma call your house an be like...

Yo! Don't you got a man?
Why you fuckin' with mine
See I been through bad times
Get your mind off mine
You must be lonely
Why you messing with me?
But it won't be easy to get my baby
