Home show, mom won't know Run out the back door, he's passed out on the floor Third time, been caught twice Forgive our neighbor Bob, I think he humped the dog

But good things come to those who wait, 'cause she laid me And mom and dad possess the key, instant slavery No need to explain the plan, no need to even bother I'll pack my bags, I swear I'll run, wish my friends were 21

White lies, bloodshot eyes
Breath of alcohol, stole it from the mall
How's Chris marked with lipstick
Better call their fathers, sleeping with your daughters

But good things come to those who wait, 'cause she laid me And mom and dad possess the key, instant slavery No need to explain the plan, no need to even bother I'll pack my bags, I swear I'll run, wish my friends were 21

You don't belong, you left the kids to carry on You planned their fall Too bad you're wrong, don't need a mom, dad, slave, drive, song I time bomb

I time bomb
I time bomb
I time bomb

Turn low the radio I think I hear my dad yelling at the band

But good things come to those who wait, 'cause she laid me And mom and dad possess the key, instant slavery No need to explain the plan, no need to even bother I'll pack my bags, I swear I'll run, wish my friends were 21

You don't belong, you left the kids to carry on You planned their fall Too bad you're wrong, don't need a mom, dad, slave, drive, song I time bomb

I time bomb
I time bomb
I time bomb
I time bomb
