

Brightly Shines - 1/1

Interprété par Eiffel 65.

You,
Use to hide behind behind a wall
The part of you nobody knows
No one ever saw it

And your flower deep
Down in the sea
Full of colours deep indeed
No one ever saw it before

No one ever saw it before
Your shine is leaving
You alone
Just put your truth in Who you are in who you are

Why can't you see it
There is a light that
Brightly Shines inside your head
There is a light that Brightly Shines that
Brightly Shines
Inside yourself.....
