

Sleeping With Ghosts - 1/1

The sea's evaporating
Though it comes as no surprise
These clouds we're seeing
They're just explosions in the sky
It seems it's written but we can't read between the line
Hush, it's ok
Dry your eye

Dry your eye
Soulmate dry your eye
'cause soulmates never die

This one world vision
Turns us into compromise
What good's religion
When it's each other we despise?
Damn the government
Damn their killing
Damn their lies
Hush, it's ok
Dry your eyes

Soulmate dry your eyes
'cause soulmates never die
