

Karma killer - 1/1

Interprété par Robbie Williams.

Are you cut up, or do you easily forget
Are you still around, why haven't you managed to die yet
You could prop up the bar in hell

How do you sleep, you've never loved
Why was I never good enough
You thought you'd leave me falling forever
Karma killer

Needless to say, I guess you know I hate you
You're so full of sin even the devil rates you
I hope you choke on your Bacardi and Coke

How do you breathe, why don't you cry
How come you never ask me why
You're not a man stand and deliver
Karma killer

CHORUS
Karma killerX3

I hope you choke on your Bacardi and Coke
Look what you didn't take from meX4

I don't need to take revenge
'Cos they're coming to get you
There's no hope for you my friend
'Cos they're coming to get you

Karma killer...
