

Still - 1/2

Interprété par Cher.

My heart cried out for you
over an ocean
And your pain cried out for me
across a wave
You here half dead
numb to any emotion
'Cause you were a prisoner and I was a slave We'd both stopped searching for any acceptance
And rejection - always was our bitter pill
'Cause I have no precious gifts to give you I only have four words
Darlin' I love you
I love you...
Still
I never thought someone would ever see or make a prisoner of my heart but like a warrior dressed in armour you carved your name in it right from the start You held my soul a hostage in your tower on the hill
And all I pray for when I sleep or lie awake Is that you love me still
over an ocean
And your pain cried out for me
across a wave
'cause we here half dead
numb to any emotion
now you are my prisoner and I am your slave We'd both - stopped searching for
any acceptance
And rejection had always been
our bitter pill
And I have no precious gifts to give you Oh I only have these words
Darlin' I love you
I love you...
Still
Oh, oh baby I love you
I love you
oh, oh baby I love you, Oh, Still Baby I love you, Oh Still
