

Identify - 1/1

Interprété par Natalie Imbruglia.

Your eyes they send me to eternity,
Your heart may cast me down to hell.
I'm gone but lately it's your love, It's condemnation enough.

Identify, please identify.
If it's me you want standing by your side.
Identify.
These tears of mine,
Am I lonely or am I just alive ?

And let time to say
Who and why we stand,
It's test of love.
Your hands were speaking "No".
I felt the movement go,
The ice was breaking so
I wonder why that I'd Identify with you my life
To leave me empty
And see if I'd survive.

For every questioned hour,
For every second devoured
You left me wonder you
Into a myth that I missed.

Identify, please identify.
If it's me you want standing by your side.
Identify. These tears of mine,
Am I lonely or am I just alive ?
Am I lonely or am I just alive ?
