

Yeat's grave - 1/1

Interprété par Cranberries.

Paroles/Musique : O'Riordan, Hogan

Cd : No need to argue

Silenced by death in the grave

WB Yeats couldn't save

Why did you stand here

Were you sickened in time

But I know by now

Why did you sit here ?

In the GRAVE

In the GRAVE

In the GRAVE

W.B. Yeats "Second"

Why should I blame her

That she filled my days

With misery or that she would of late

Have taught to ignorant men violent ways

Or hurled the little street upon the greant

Had they but courage

Equal to desire

Sad that Maud Gonne couldn't stay

But she had Mac Bride anyway

And you sit here with me

On the isle Inistee

And your writing down everything

But I know by now

Why did you sit here

In the grave

In the grave

In the grave

In the grave

Why should I blame her

Had they but courage equal to desire
