yeah, da da da da da da ya i may not need you to sail the ocean i've got no need to climb a mountain high but there'll be no time i won't need you by my side you can depend on my love forever you can be sure baby, sure baby i'll never not want you i'll never not need you no i'll never stop loving you the way that i do i'll never not want you i'll never not need to feel your touch at night no there's one thing i will never not do i'll never not need you never not need you, baby i don't want no-one else's kisses i'll never hunger for another's touch oh there'll be no-one else this heart will ever love you can be sure i am yours forever cos you're my world baby, world baby

don't need the whole world at my feet but I will always need you lovin me you're just so much a part of me i'll stop breathing before i never stop needing you

i'll never not want you i'll never not need to feel your touch at night
