

I'm Learning (part two) - 1/1

Interprété par Boyzone.

how is it now have you moved on and do you still think of me when i'm gone i think of you and i just wonder where you are and what thoughts are racing through your mind who are you holding now oh i hope that you are happy now and someday i know i will be

i've been told there'll be another (or so they say) but i guess never like the other so i'll shed my tears and i'll face my fears i've been told there'll be another it's so simple to say i love you but sometimes it's not enough so i'll find my sunrise at the end of these few words who are you holding now oh i hope that you're happy now and someday i know i will be

but i guess never like the other
so i'll shed my tears and i'll face my fears i've been told there'll be another i've been told there'll be another
