

That's How Love Goes - 1/1

Interprété par Boyzone.

how many times have i told you tonight here's no need to worry it'll all be alright so don't walk away at the end of the day i'll make you sorry if you decide to stay sometimes it's hard to hold on that's when your heart needs to be strong

that's how love goes (that's how love goes)
don't ask me why only love knows what you're feeling inside
that's how love goes (that's how love goes)
one day it's goodbye then it's just one more try nobody knows how love goes (how love goes, how love goes, how love goes)

more than i see (more than i see) more i believe that nothing is certain when you're following your dream so all i can do (all i can do) is keep holding you (holding you) maybe together we can make them dreams come true sometimes it's hard to hold on that's when your heart needs to be strong

that's how love goes (that's how love goes)
don't ask me why only love knows what you're feeling inside
that's how love goes (that's how love goes)
one day it's goodbye then it's just one more try nobody knows how love goes (how love goes, how love goes, how love goes)

sometimes it's easy to think you understand just then you see it slipping through your hands

that's how love goes (that's how love goes)
don't ask me why only love knows what you're feeling inside
that's how love goes (that's how love goes)
one day it's goodbye then it's just one more try nobody knows how love goes (how love goes, how love goes, how love goes)
