

You - 1/1

Interprété par Radiohead.

You are the sun the moon and stars
ah you... and I could never run away from you

You try but what could get out of things?
and why should I believe myself?

It's like the world is gonna end so soon
and why should I believe myself?

Yeah...

You, me, and everything
caught in the fire
I can see you drowning
caught in the fire
