

Half a woman, half a shadow - 1/1

Interprété par Roxette.

Daylight is breaking again. I hide in the dark.
I'm watching the rain. You're out of touch.
You're out of reach. What can I say, I never wanted this way.
Love sleeps alone. The cold telephone, I know the heart.
Yes, I know the kind. The kisses of fire, turning to grey.
I never wanted it this way. I always wanted you to stay.
Wash my pain away, cause I'm half a woman, half a shadow.
Love always change with the trees, the spring and the leaves, the waves and the sea.
Wilder than light the wind in your eyes led me astray.
I never wanted it this way. I always wanted you to stay.
Oh I need you, yes I need you. Give me a reason to believe.
