CD Outrospective

drain the colour from the sky turn blue without you arms like a purpose like a humming bird 'm nervous cuts 'm the left eye, you're the right it not be madness to fight? come one you the song which rights my wrongs you the fullness of living power to begin again right now you, in you, in you... come one come one come one 'm unafraid never scared always watched, pressed air 'm the left eye, you're the right it not be madness to fight? come one come
