

Afterglow - 1/1

Interprété par Travis.

CD The invisible band

feeling myself

all of the time

all of the time feeling alright taking a while raising a smile makes it all worthwhile but if you wanted to find peace of mind then you could find it any time you liked

you are the afterglow

feeling my way all of the time all of the time doing just fine taking a page out of my life out of my life wouldn't it be nice

then you couldn't find it any time you liked

you are the midnight show the only one i know you come and then you go and when you finally leave you leave nothing for me
