

The humpty dumpty love song - 1/1

Interprété par Travis.

CD The invisible band

all of the king's horses and all of the king's men couldn't pull my heart back together again all of the physicians and mathematicians too failed to stop my heart from breaking in two cos all i need is you

i just need you

yeah you got the glue so i'm gonna give my heart to you

i had a premonition

a movie in my hand confirming my suspicions of what i would find it followed me to l a down to mexico

came in through the back door at the start of the show still all i need you

oh was a perfect day

oh in a perfect way

you know something had go you left me high

you left me low

now as i lie in pieces and wait for your return the sun upon my forehead it burns baby burns baby burns an eye on all my horses you've slept with all my men i'm never gonna get it together again still all i need is you

i just need you

yeah you got the glue so i'm gonna give my heart to you yeah you got the glue and there's nothing i can do
